Judge Soifer,

I am writing under Local 7.3 to request an emergency hearing on behalf of my clients Neil Heslin and Scarlett Lewis. As I'm sure you're aware, Mr. Heslin and Ms. Lewis were the plaintiffs in the 2022 trial against Alex Jones and Free Speech Systems, LLC held in the 459th District Court, resulting in a final judgment exceeding $50 million. As you may also be aware, the case has been under a bankruptcy stay since the time judgment was entered.

Today, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas has dismissed the bankruptcy case of Free Speech Systems, which lifted the stay on collection actions against Free Speech Systems in state court. (Because Alex Jones is still in bankruptcy, a stay against Jones individually remains in place.)

Plaintiffs have now filed the attached Application for Turnover Order, along with the attached proposed order, seeking that FSS be ordered to turn over its property under the Texas turnover statute. Because of the immediate danger of displacement of assets, Plaintiffs are requesting an emergency remote hearing take place today on the motion. Counsel for Free Speech Systems has indicated he is available to appear at a remote hearing today. The hearing should take 15-20 minutes.

I have copied the 459th District Court, to which this case is specially assigned. We would be very grateful if either court could accommodate a remote hearing today.
